Community Discussion Summary

Economic Development — Community Infrastructure Improvements was selected at the second quarter CPP meeting as an outcome for Greenlee County. During the third quarter, the Panel welcomed Don Macke from the Center for Rural Entrepreneurship to present at the meeting, highlighting best practices and sharing successes around Economic Development and prosperity for rural communities.

Don's presentation focused on attributes of successful communities as well as the importance of entrepreneurship and quality of life in growing more prosperous communities. The supporting materials and data for his presentation, along with the PowerPoint presentation, are available online.

The Leadership Initiative for Sustainable Communities is moving forward and we are pleased to announce the Graham County leadership cohort members:

- Cecelia Jernigan
- Cheyanne Colville
- Delia Smeaton
- Ian McGaughey
- John Basteen
- Laura Dorrell
- Yvonne Pearson

The Greenlee County cohort will work with Lodestar Center for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Innovation at ASU to develop collective action around the desired outcome of Economic Development – Community Infrastructure Improvements. This is a strategy to build capacity and allow Greenlee County to lead their own development and sustainability.

The CPP meets on a quarterly basis — for more information, please contact Sean Wenham (swenham@fmi.com).
